Remembering that a refugee is defined as a person with "a well-founded fear of being persecuted for reasons of race, religion, nationality, membership of a particular social group, or political opinion, is outside the country of his nationality, and is unable to or, owing to such fear, is unwilling to avail himself of the protection of that country ... " according to the UN 1951 Refugee Convention.

1. Calls for Member States to work together in recognizing and further working on the Refugee Crisis;
[use semicolons to separate operative clauses]

2. Urges Member States to provide immediate educational opportunities such as but not limited to vocational training for refugees in order to: a) equip them for being a valuable and contributing member of the host country b) develop their skillset for possible future return to their own country;

3. Suggests that through a public-private partnership model, refugees gain specific employment and as such, release the financial burden of the host country;

4. Further suggests that all immigrants must have probable cause (life or death situation) before being granted asylum and that any migrant that doesn't meet the requirements be declined asylum and will be return to their nation of origin;

5. Supports that any crime committed by an immigrant should be punished by deportation back to their country of origin, as they are not in their own country, they should respect towards the ones they are willing to take care and help them.
